Dear Jubair Ibn Omar,

Thank you for your application to study at the University of Exeter Penryn Campus, Cornwall.

We are delighted to offer you a place at the University, congratulations. Details of your offer and how to accept it, can be found below:

PROGRAMME TITLE:	Master of Science Renewable Energy Engineering CAH3 Code: CAH10-01-09
PROGRAMME DATES:	21 September 2026 20 September 2027
MODE OF STUDY:	Full Time
OUR OFFER:	Your offer is unconditional - we confirm that you have satisfied our academic and linguistic requirements. If you have outstanding conditions on your offer, please upload scanned or certified copies of transcripts via your Applicant Gateway, or email us the same. We ask you not to post the originals. If you have met all of the conditions of your offer, we do not require anything else.
TUITION FEES:	You have been classified as International for fee purposes. By accepting your place you will be confirming your fee status. However, if you think your fee status is incorrect you have 28 calendar days, from the date of your offer, to query your status based on your current circumstances. If you wish to do so please contact us at: ad-feestatus@exeter.ac.uk, stating your full name, Exeter Student number, programme and details of why you think the fee status is incorrect. By accepting your place you will be confirming your fee status. Please refer to our Fee Status guidance. Tuition fees for 2026/7 are £29400.00. For those studying for more than one year, our fees are expected to increase modestly in line with Consumer Price Inflation measured in December each year. More information can be found on our Student Finance webpages.
OTHER COSTS:	Disclaimer - The University of Exeter does its best to outline significant additional costs associated with your programme at offer stage. There may be other costs associated with your study or that are personal to you (or individual to your circumstances) which we are unable to outline at offer stage. Where appropriate details of additional costs will be given in programme information or on the University website under the appropriate area.

SCHOLARSHIPS:

We have a number of exciting scholarships and bursaries. Please check our funding website to find further details of these.

We are pleased to offer University of Exeter International students from Bangladesh, who begin an eligible taught Masters degree with us in 2026/7, a Postgraduate Taught Scholarship 2026/27 for Bangladesh. The scholarship is awarded automatically as a £7,500 tuition fees reduction.

To receive the scholarship, you must meet the entry requirements for your chosen postgraduate programme, pay the tuition fee deposit by the deadline stated in your original programme offer letter, and enrol on this programme in the 2026/27 academic year. Full terms and conditions can be found here. You cannot normally receive more than one scholarship (tuition fees discount) from the University of Exeter; if you are offered multiple scholarships, then you will be awarded whichever scholarship has the higher value (any exceptions to this rule are noted in the terms and conditions for the relevant scheme).

DEPOSIT:

We will require a tuition fee deposit of £2500 by 21st July 2026 to guarantee your place. Please note this is not an extra charge, but an early payment towards the costs of your tuition.

For detailed information on how to pay this deposit, along with terms and conditions relating to the payment, and answers to lots of frequently asked questions, please visit our dedicated Tuition Fee Deposit webpages.

If you have any difficulties in paying the deposit by this date please contact the Admissions Office via the Applicant Gateway, providing details of the circumstance and advising on a date when the deposit payment would be possible and an extension will be considered. If you are applying for a Postgraduate loan from the Student Loans Company you can request an extension via the Applicant Gateway too.

Exemptions: You may be exempt from paying a deposit if you are in receipt of an approved professional career development loan, scholarship or studentship covering the full tuition fees. If you believe you are exempt please send evidence to the Admissions Office via the Applicant Gateway.

IMMIGRATION:

If you require a student visa to study in the UK you will need to provide a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) in support of your visa application. We will contact you about this once you have firmly accepted your offer, paid your deposit (if applicable) and met all conditions. The earliest you can apply for a visa is 6 months before your study start date, and it is important to note that the process may take a number of weeks. For information on visa processing times please see www.gov.uk

We strongly advise that you accept your offer and pay the tuition fee deposit (if required), at least 6 months before the beginning of your studies or as soon as possible if after this date, to give you sufficient time to successfully apply for your visa.

When you apply for your Student visa you will need to ensure that you meet the financial requirements. Please check our website for detailed information on these and other eligibility criteria. Our International Students website for more information about immigration, travel to Exeter, English Language requirements, visits to your country and much more, including our handbook 'International Students' Guide'.

As part of the Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) process, applicants may be required to undertake a pre CAS interview. The purpose of this interview is to help assess the applicant’s credibility and eligibility for Student visa sponsorship.

Failure to attend or successfully pass the pre CAS interview will result in the University being unable to sponsor the applicant for a Student Visa. In such circumstances, the University reserves the right to withdraw the offer of admission.

ACCESSIBILITY SUPPORT:	We want to make sure that you excel during your time at the University of Exeter - we're proud to have an incredible Wellbeing Services team that can provide advice and guidance to help assess your learning and teaching needs in preparation for, and during your study. No matter your requirements, our team of qualified professionals are devoted to helping you thrive in your studies. For more information, please take a look at our Wellbeing Services page. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please ensure that you read carefully through all terms and conditions.

By accepting an offer of a place, you are agreeing to the following:

- University reserves the right to amend or withdraw an offer where it comes to our attention that the applicant (or party authorised to act on behalf of an applicant) has taken or is taking, more than one academic qualification that meets our entry requirements, provides fraudulent or false information or has not disclosed information which would have affected the outcome of their application.
- Requests to change programme during the application stage or on arrival at the University are not guaranteed and are subject to availability and meeting the terms of entry for that specific programme.
- In accepting your place, you are confirming your fee status. If you think your fee status is incorrect, please refer to our Fee status guidance or contact us at ad-feestatus@exeter.ac.uk
- To abide by the University of Exeter Admissions Policy.
- To abide by the Student Contract.
- To abide by the regulations for students. All students are required to abide by the University's Charter, Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations as a condition of enrolment. These include, without prejudice to the generality of that statement, academic regulations, arrangements for appeals and grievances, disciplinary regulations and regulations covering the use of the Library and IT facilities. Copies are available on request from sid@exeter.ac.uk and can be accessed by following the link to Information for Current Students.

It is the responsibility of applicants to:

- Provide full and accurate information in an application to the University;
- Disclose to the University any circumstances or relevant unspent convictions which would:
- prevent you from participating or completing your chosen programme of study;
- or restrict you from engaging in university life;
- Notify the University of any changes or corrections to the original application.

YOUR PROGRAMME OF STUDY

Programme contents and information about learning and teaching for your chosen programme can be viewed on our website. The University reserves the right to make variations to programme contents, entry requirements and methods of delivery, and to discontinue, merge or combine programmes, both before and after a student's admission to the University, if such action is reasonably considered necessary by the University and will notify you via email where a substantial change is made to your programme of study.

In the event that, prior to the student commencing the first term of study for any programme described in our prospectus, the University discontinues the programme, the student may either (1) withdraw from the University without any liability for fees; or (2) transfer to such other programme (if any) as may be offered by the University for which the student is qualified. If in these circumstances the student wishes to withdraw from the University and to enrol in a course at a different University, the University shall use its reasonable endeavours to assist the student.

Once the student has commenced the first term of study, if:

(a) the University's ability to deliver programmes or other services in accordance with the descriptions provided is compromised by circumstances beyond the control of the University (e.g. third party industrial action), the University will use all reasonable endeavours to minimise disruption as far as it is practical to do so;
(b) the programme is cancelled or substantially varied from that described in the prospectus for reasons other than circumstances beyond the University's reasonable control, the University will use reasonable endeavours to provide a suitable replacement programme. If the student does not wish to accept the replacement programme, the student shall be entitled to withdraw from the programme. In the event of such withdrawal the University shall make an appropriate refund of course fees.

DATA SHARING

In preparation for your arrival at the University we would like to share some of your personal information (such as full name, date of birth, Exeter Student Number, your email address/es and your University of Exeter username (once allocated) with the Guild of Students. This information will not be shared until you have been offered and accepted an unconditional offer at the University and will be used to allow you to sign up for appropriate Guild events in advance of your formal registration with the University. If you do not wish to share your data, you must notify us within 10 days of accepting an unconditional place at the University by emailing ad-data-share@exeter.ac.uk, quoting your full name, student number putting DATA SHARE-OPT OUT in the header of your email.

The University works with several organisations around the world who assist with academic checks on submitted documents and quality assurance. In circumstances where the University needs to consult a third-party organisation to clarify degree certificates and transcripts to make a decision we would like to share your information. If you could benefit from pre-departure assistance, we might refer your application onto our network of appointed agents in country. If you do not wish us to share your information with approved third-party organisations you can opt out by emailing ad-data-share@exeter.ac.uk within the next 10 working days. If you email, please quote THIRD PARTY-OPT OUT.

EMAIL

We will use email for most of our communication with you so please ensure you provide your Exeter Student Number and the email address you supplied when applying in correspondence with us. Please check your emails on a regular basis and inform us of any changes to your contact email address as soon as possible to avoid any delays.

DEPOSIT REFUND POLICY

All deposit payments are subject to a 14-day cancellation period, if you cancel your place within 14 days of making the payment your deposit will be refunded in full. By making a deposit payment you are confirming that you understand and agree to the terms and conditions of our Deposit Refund Policy.
